Economic impact payments: What you need to know

Updated with new information for seniors, retirees on April 1, 2020. Also see Treasury news release.

Check IRS.gov for the latest information: No action needed by most people at this time

IR-2020-61, March 30, 2020

WASHINGTON — The Treasury Department and the Internal Revenue Service today announced that distribution of economic impact payments will begin in the next three weeks and will be distributed automatically, with no action required for most people. However, some taxpayers who typically do not file returns will need to submit a simple tax return to receive the economic impact payment.

Who is eligible for the economic impact payment?

Tax filers with adjusted gross income up to $75,000 for individuals and up to $150,000 for married couples filing joint returns will receive the full payment. For filers with income above those amounts, the payment amount is reduced by $5 for each $100 above the $75,000/$150,000 thresholds. Single filers with income exceeding $99,000 and $198,000 for joint filers with no children are not eligible. Social Security recipients and railroad retirees who are otherwise not required to file a tax return are also eligible and will not be required to file a return.

Eligible taxpayers who filed tax returns for either 2019 or 2018 will automatically receive an economic impact payment of up to $1,200 for individuals or $2,400 for married couples and up to $500 for each qualifying child.

How will the IRS know where to send my payment?

The vast majority of people do not need to take any action. The IRS will calculate and automatically send the economic impact payment to those eligible.

For people who have already filed their 2019 tax returns, the IRS will use this information to calculate the payment amount. For those who have not yet filed their return for 2019, the IRS will use information from their 2018 tax filing to calculate the payment. The economic impact payment will be deposited directly into the same banking account reflected on the return filed.

The IRS does not have my direct deposit information. What can I do?

In the coming weeks, Treasury plans to develop a web-based portal for individuals to provide their banking information to the IRS online, so that individuals can receive payments immediately as opposed to checks in the mail.

Pagos de impacto económico: lo que debe saber

Verifique IRS.gov para información reciente: mayoría de personas no necesita tomar ninguna acción

IR-2020-61SP, 30 de marzo de 2020

WASHINGTON — El Departamento del Tesoro y el Servicio de Impuestos Internos anunciaron hoy que la distribución de los pagos de impacto económico comenzará en las próximas tres semanas y se distribuirán automáticamente, sin acción requerida por parte de la mayoría de las personas. Sin embargo, algunas personas de la tercera edad que típicamente no presentan declaraciones tendrán que presentar una declaración sencilla para recibir el pago.

¿Quién es elegible para el pago de impacto económico?

Los que presentan declaraciones de impuestos con ingresos brutos ajustados de hasta $75,000 para individuos y hasta $150,000 para parejas casadas que presenten declaraciones en conjunto recibirán el pago completo. Para los que presentan ingresos por encima de esos montos, el monto del pago se va reduciendo $5 por cada $100 por encima de los umbrales de $75,000/$150,000. Los solicitantes individuales con ingresos superiores a $99,000 y los que declaran en conjunto ingresos de $198,000, sin hijos no son elegibles.

Los contribuyentes elegibles que presentaron declaraciones de impuestos del 2019 o 2018 recibirán automáticamente un pago de impacto económico de hasta $1,200 para individuos o $2,400 para parejas casadas. Los padres también reciben $500 por cada hijo calificado.

¿Cómo el IRS sabrá a donde enviar mi pago?

La mayoría de las personas no necesitan tomar ninguna acción. El IRS calculará y enviará automáticamente el pago de impacto económico a aquellos elegibles.

Para las personas que ya presentaron sus declaraciones de impuestos del 2019, el IRS usará esta información para calcular el monto del pago. Para aquellos que aún no han presentado su declaración del 2019, el IRS usará la información de su presentación de impuestos del 2018 para hacer los cálculos de pago de impacto económico. El pago de impacto económico se depositará directamente en la misma cuenta bancaria reflejada en la declaración presentada.

El IRS no tiene mi información de depósito directo. ¿Que puedo hacer?

En las próximas semanas, el Tesoro planifica desarrollar una herramienta en línea para individuos para que provean su información bancaria al IRS en línea, así las personas pueden recibir sus pagos inmediatamente en lugar de cheques por correo.

Normalmente no tengo el requisito de presentar una declaración de impuestos. ¿Aun puedo recibir mi pago?

Sí. Las personas que usualmente no presentan una declaración de impuestos tendrán que presentar una declaración sencilla para recibir un pago de impacto económico. Los contribuyentes de bajos ingresos, personas mayores de edad, beneficiarios del Seguro Social, algunos veteranos e individuos con discapacidades que normalmente no presentan, no adeudarán impuestos.

¿Como puedo presentar la declaración necesaria para recibir mi pago de impacto económico?

IRS.gov/coronavirus pronto proveerá información con instrucciones acerca de cómo las personas en estos grupos pueden presentar una declaración de 2019 sencilla, pero necesaria, que incluye su estado civil tributario, número de dependientes e información de depósito directo de su cuenta bancaria.

No he presentado mi declaración de impuestos para 2018 o 2019. ¿Aun puedo recibir un pago de impacto económico?

Sí. El IRS insta a cualquier persona que está obligada a presentar una declaración de impuestos del 2018 o 2019 a que presenten lo más pronto posible para recibir un pago de impacto económico. Es importante incluir información bancaria para el depósito directo en la declaración.

Tengo que presentar una declaración de impuestos. ¿Por cuánto tiempo estarán disponibles los pagos de impacto económico?

Para aquellos preocupados por visitar a un profesional de impuestos o una organización comunitaria local en persona para obtener ayuda con su declaración de impuestos, el IRS enfatiza que estos pagos de impacto económico estarán disponibles durante el resto del 2020.

¿Dónde puedo encontrar información adicional?

El IRS publicará toda la información clave en IRS.gov/coronavirus tan pronto como esté disponible. El IRS tiene personal limitado en muchas de sus oficinas pero continúa comprometido en ayudar a los contribuyente elegibles a recibir sus cheques lo más eficientemente posible. Se insta a los contribuyentes a buscar información actualizada en IRS.gov/coronavirus o en lugar de llamar al IRS ya que el número limitado de asistentes disponibles están ayudando a procesar las declaraciones del 2019.
